

Initial Report on dissemination activities and communication strategy update

---

Publishable Summary

The present “Initial Report on dissemination activities and communication strategy update” aims to provide updated information on communication activities and tools carried out halfway through the AMYPAD project.

The described items were designed in compliance with the initial communication plan developed at the beginning of the project (Deliverable D6.1). Impact of the AMYPAD communication activities and tools developed early in the project are also reported. With regards to the AMYPAD’s communication framework, the communication strategy is evaluated and might be adjusted to maintain the communication objectives. Finally, expected future communication activities are reported.
